Forever in My Heart Maria K. Alexander

Vicky DiFrancesco is ready to put the past behind her. After a humiliating divorce, she's determined to make her new café a success. The last thing she needs is her first love around, reminding her of what they'd lost. But when her life is threatened, could he be the very man she needs? Jamie DiSilva's homecoming after retiring from the army isn't the one he'd been hoping for. Now, he's trying to start a home improvement business in a town settled on holding him accountable for the sins of his late brothers. Redeeming himself to the girl he never stopped loving and her family is difficult when his brothers' secrets come back to haunt him. Untangling themselves from the past means righting several wrongs and deciding if their love is meant to last forever.
