Sensual western historical romance set in 1885. Second edition. New cover. After fleeing an abusive husband six years ago, Beth Jeffers wants nothing more than to protect her son Davey and to help her mother operate a Texas Hill Country boarding house. The strong women in her family have had no luck with men, and she has no intention of letting any man influence her son. Not even Matt Petrov, no matter how much her lonely heart urges otherwise. Federal Marshall Matt Petrov, also known as Lone Wolf Peters, fell in love with Beth the first time he saw her. Then she was another man's wife, so he kept his longing a secret. But he's saved his love for her for six horrific years. Now, the lovely widow and he have crossed paths again. This time, he intends to risk all for a chance at happiness. First he must rescue his distant kinsman from an assassin's clutches and protect Beth's son Davey. Will Matt succeed before his kin is killed? Mystery, kidnapping, and twists await Matt and Beth. Will his secrets shatter the love he and Beth share?
