Recruited by the Philips Record Company in the early sixties, my brief was to scout the British Isles to find talent for the Fontana label, then my job was to make their recordings into hits. During the next six years hundreds of these records charted. Two distinctly different singles were released in the summer of 1969: 'Je T'Aime... Moi Non Plus' by Jane Birkin and Serge Gainsbourg and 'Space Oddity' by David Bowie. Read how, against all odds, these revolutionary recordings became huge hits. They still remain two of the most successful singles of all time.
