The Day You Left: a novel J. Renee Olson

Adam and Ellie Thomas are the perfect couple with a beautiful home, two young children, financial success, and social status. But hidden behind closed doors, things aren't as they seem. Still, when Ellie reaches her breaking point and tells Adam to go, she's surprised to watch him honor the request. Without each other, Adam and Ellie are forced to reevaluate themselves—what they want, where they came from, and what they're capable of. And they have to do it alone because, after all, how can they admit to anyone the things they've done, the things they've lived through? There are two sides to every story . . . and somewhere in between is the truth. Find out what happens when the couple who has everything hits the breaking point.
