Burke Matthews and his team of experts of The Brigadoon have hauled everything from Russian nuclear submarines to stranded catamarans. After two weeks in the sunny port of Panino, Italy, trying to win the bid to salvage a distressed cruise ship half-sunk off the coast, Burke worries about the trapped fuel in the ship's hull.

Burke knows with each passing day, hope of finding survivors diminishes, but chances of a leak increase. There's another problem. The Bella Donnacrashed in the middle of a marine reserve -- an environmental disaster waiting to happen.

Allowed to drill, finally, he is astonished to hear knocking from an engine room. He breaks down the door to find a sick, but very handsome French Canadian waiter. Gabriel Bergeron is one of the sexiest guys Burke's ever seen... and he soon learns, one seriously hung dude...
