Silent Screams: Images and Visions Fred Westermeyer

This collection of poems by Fred Westermeyer was written over a long period of time. The first poem was written in the spring of 1985 and the last was written in the winter of 2016. During that time he worked in the corporate world in the medical electronics field . After leaving that world , he was a marketing rep during his last years before retirement . These poems are the results of his visions and dreams along that journey. Some of the poems are images of his time in the USMC and the time he spent in Vietnam in 1967 These poems are the "snapshots " he took along his way . His Silent Screams.
