Touching All Bases Jerry Bocian

This is the story of a son of Polish immigrants who came to America to make new lives for their families. My father, Jerry, as he is known by all was: an Alter Boy, an exceptional athlete, a proud Navy submarine veteran, a self made man in the trucking business, plus so much more. He has touched the lives of many people, and I am proud of the legacy he attained. This is the story of his life.
