For Every Season II Greg Laurie

"To everything there is a season," wrote Solomon, "a time for every purpose under heaven..." For every season of life you may find yourself in, the Bible offers timeless principles for knowing and walking with God in our ever-changing world. Following in the tradition of For Every Season, pastor and evangelist Greg Laurie brings you his second volume of devotional readings offering wisdom, encouragement, and practical applications from God's Word on many of the challenges you may face in life, from dealing with discouragement to praying effectively to managing your finances to sharing your faith. By the way, you don't have to wait until January 1. You can start today and find practical help and hope for every day--and every season--of your life.
