Never Dead: From the Case Files of Jason Aldward Andrew Holcomb

Jason Aldward hates his job. His department, The Bureau of Paranormal Analysis and Apprehension, is a joke. He's the only field agent, the only cases he gets are ridiculous, and you can only take so many calls about Bigfoot before you lose your mind. When out of nowhere the Director of his department pushes him into a murder investigation, Jason thinks he's finally found his shot, but between the FBI agent dogging his every step, and the disturbing challenges from the killer. Jason can only hope his wit and courage will be enough to close the case. But what kind of man is this fiend in Jason's path, and why do Jason's nightmares suddenly begin to foretell the future? The hunt for answers is on, and it will take everything Jason has to bring in this monster the press has dubbed "The Modern Jack the Ripper."
