Frosty the Snowman Steve Nelson, Jack Rollins

This title is suitable for the age group - Baby to pre-school. When the song about Frosty the Snowman was introduced in 1950 sung by Gene Autry, it became an instant hit. Since then, its popularity has increased every year and making Frosty one of the most recognised and beloved characters ever produced. Now, this bouncy happy tune can be found inside this sturdy board book and is accompanied with the bright artwork created by Rebecca Thornburgh. Once the book is opened, Frosty does indeed come to life with the lively tinkling tune. The song plays only once each time the book is opened, a fact that parents will appreciate. Children and their parents are encouraged to sing along as well as read the text. This combination of book and tune will practically leap off the shelves.
