Every Once In A While... Edward Charrette

Independent Filmmaker Edward Charrette's first novel tells the story of a twenty-something man, living life in the suburbs of NYC just before the start of the new millennium. It was a different time then; the internet was just beginning to take off, smartphones didn't exist and 9/11 was just another day in September. Edward Charrette shows you an honest, often humorous and poignant look inside the mind of a man who sees the world slightly different from the rest. Every once in a while you lose control. Every once in a while life is good. Every once in a while you get a glimpse of yourself in the mirror and are never the same again.
