Stunted Growth is about overcoming obstacles that stop a business achieving its potential and is for you if:

- you built your company with a dream and sometimes it feels more like a nightmare
- you feel overwhelmed or lost because of the rate of change around you
- you want to run your business instead of constantly reacting to events
- you believe in your product/service and in its ability to positively impact the world

You will avoid the mistakes that most business owners make so that you can:

- Reconnect with your vision and goals for the business
- Improve the systems so that you save time and money
- Use your strengths in leading an effective team
- Enjoy your work and have time for family and fun

Stunted Growth has been written to help stimulate thought about various aspects of doing business and consequently pinpoint areas for improvement so that in depth study can then be made.

If used productively, it will provide many topics for brainstorming with your team if you have one.

It will also bring you an increased awareness of the way your business is operating at this point in time and will help you to find solutions that you can start implementing right now to improve your results.

We challenge you to read the book, apply the ideas and guarantee you will see results!

The extent of the results will be proportionate to your actions and your commitment to see them through.
