The Second Cookbook: brunch and munch Virginia Hall

The Second Cookbook is subtitled "brunch and munch" and contains all sorts of wonderful dishes to serve for entertaining with style and ease, all with a decided Georgia flair. The categories range from quiche, grits, overnight casseroles, salads, "girly" soups and finger desserts to coffee cakes, muffins and aspics, sure to make your next brunch wonderfully easy and yummy. Virginia has created another little cookbook for people who enjoy reading cookbooks - the day-to-day remarks, stories of disasters and triumphs in the kitchen and hilarious stories make this a darling book to use over and over again and a wonderful hostess gift for anyone who just loves reading. From the truly southern shrimp and grits to the British lemon curd and scones, to graham cracker bread to frozen fruit salad, you'll be laughing while you cook your best brunch ever. You will feel like you have talented but crazy friend in the kitchen - a friend whose recipes actually taste good! Enjoy.
