Bracie longs to have a lasting relationship with a good Christian man. Her desire to fill that void leaves Bracie vulnerable to the one thing she has not learned to control - PASSION! Through a computer error Bracie reconnects with someone from her past. He takes her on a secret whirlwind romance, until one night it all blows up in her face. After struggling to get her life back on track, Bracie's faith and quiet strength is put to the test when jealousy and greed threatens her happiness. Tyler is very handsome and very rich. True love is something he doesn't think is possible until he meets Bracie. Can true love really conquer all, when two different lifestyles are forced to go public and contend with opposition from both sides.
