Images of a dark forest, a screaming woman and blood haunt Emma Mathews from the moment she meets Joe Castlellaw, and everything she thought she knew about life, her family, and herself is about to change forever. NO ONE KNOWS EVERYTHING FOREVER Emma Mathews never believed she was like everyone else, but neither did she think herself crazy. Meeting Joe Castlellaw, Henry Dearborn High's newest student, was like waking on a cold rock in a strange place, the world bathed in liquid moonlight. Everything is different now...and fraught. Visions of a dark forest, a screaming woman and blood haunt Emma's dreams, and not only at night. But Joe's lonely beauty makes her float on air, and she would follow him anywhere: out of high school and through the great tree, to a world of poetry and political savagery, of magic and murder, to a life that is entirely theirs and yet unlike anything they have ever known.
