Want to make great memories with your kids this Christmas? Looking for ways to engage them in the holiday activities?

Pamela Landsbury has the perfect solution with her book Pamela Landsbury's Creative Christmas Cupcakes.

Kids, with their wild imagination, curiosity, and preferred taste for sweets, can be great cooks. And Christmastime is equivalent to family time. What better way to spend the holiday season with the family than letting children help you with baking cookies, cakes, cupcakes, muffins, and all kinds of treats?

Cooking and baking with kids is rewardingly fun. Seeing them experiment with recipes and concentrate on their tasks is just so adorable. Bonding with them in the kitchen can result in memories that will last a lifetime. Yes, the kitchen will most likely turn into a mess, but that's all part of the enjoyment and learning experience.

But wait, what about the recipes to bake? You just can't let them make random recipes – that could end up disastrous. This is why you should get a hold of Pamela Landsbury's Creative Christmas Cupcakes. Pamela Landsbury will teach you:

- Different recipes perfect for baking with kids
- How to bake tried and true recipes that kids will surely enjoy
- How to make children become efficient members of the household
- How to let their young minds learn real-world math
- How to cultivate children's patience, precision, talents, and skills
- How to make this year's holiday season extra special
- Ways to incorporate healthy elements into your child's food
- How to bake your child's favorite sweets while still keeping nutrition in mind

Think back to the times when you baked cookies and helped out with the cooking with your own parents. Such memories can last a lifetime. Recreate those moments with your own kids so they may experience such joyous activities as well.
