Red's Query: A High Tech Mystery Eric Lundquist

Red's Query by Eric Lundquist follows Red, a covert, government, Internet information thief who reliably plies his trade, until one day he uncovers more information than he's supposed to and becomes the target of his own agency. Red's Query shines an unwelcome and probing light onto the dark and unsavory underbelly of high-tech Internet slick. Through first-class storytelling and lively insider exposition, Lundquist's dynamic thriller brings home the dangers lurking under the glossy promise of today's squeaky-clean, digital façade known as the Internet. Eric Lundquist's masterful work grapples with some of the biggest hot-button issues of the digital age: search engine security, who owns an individual's private information, and who's watching the people who are watching us? Told with sly wit, mystery, and in a narrative style sure to entertain and thrill, Red's Query is a cautionary tale for our times, one that is sure to enthrall techies and anyone who loves a good thriller.
