Previous editions of this instructive manual were titled How to Write Themes and Term Papers. The new edition of this book guides secondary school and college students in preparing basic writing assignments and term papers. It also instructs on writing the latest college-admission essays. Advice includes researching and organizing information, editing rough drafts, avoiding clichés, and solving spelling and grammar problems. Chapters on advanced writing cover business, government, science, and high-tech topics. Term paper chapters offer bonus instruction on preparing charts and graphs and researching on the Internet.
