Christ the Healer: Messages on Divine Healing (Healing Classics Series Book 3) F. F. Bosworth

Fred Francis Bosworth was raised in John Alexander Dowie's Zion City, Ill., where he became familiar with the ministry of healing which was one of the unique features of Dowie's teaching.

Converted in his teens and healed of major lung problems he was inspired to become an avid follower of Jesus and a preacher of the gospel. Several years after his healing he attended Alexander Dowie's church in Zion City, Illinois, then came into the Pentecostal experience and shared in the early Pentecostal movement.

Approximately 1909 he moved to Texas and in 1910 he started a church in Dallas which was loosely affiliated with the Alliance church. He was one of the founders of the Assemblies of God in 1914 and he was present as a mentor to the healing revivalists in the 1940s and 1950s.

This wide experience and involvement with Christ's healing power made him uniquely gifted to write this book, 'Christ the Healer.'

This classic on healing, first released in 1924, has sold more than 500,000 copies and continues to teach and inspire healing ministries in every generation.'
