Crazy in Luv, Once Upon a Time Glenn L. Anderson

Crazy in LUV, Once upon a Time is Glenn Lowell Anderson's comic, candid, and heartfelt peek into his career as an airline pilot, which spanned an impressive thirty-one years.

Few industries have endured as much change and scrutiny as the aviation industry has, and even fewer airlines have been able to weather such storms, and even use the momentum to rise to the top—but this is the story of Southwest Airlines, where legendary LUV spread like wildfire among a family of employees.

With a story perfectly combining humor and candor, travel along with a pilot and his crew as they navigate the moments in history and in aviation that forever changed the industry. Anderson's satiric cartoons act as a vehicle to convey a different time—a time when the job was referred to as a “glamour job” but in reality was anything but.

A personal and ardent portrayal of a company and its employees, Crazy in LUV, Once upon a Time is a story about a company rising above the clouds in a changing climate—and the people who helped make it possible.
