Put the fun back in your family home evenings! With this exciting new resource, you'll never spend more than a few minutes preparing a meaningful night for your family to enjoy. This book and accompanying resource CD provide a year's worth of lessons and activities to reinforce the gospel principles your children are learning at Church. Each lesson includes a thought that draws directly from the scriptures; discussion questions; a list of songs, hymns, pictures, and scriptures that fit each topic; activities tailored for both younger and older children; and a weekly challenge and reminder card. There's even a recipe section with yummy treats the whole family can make together. Stop dreading Monday nights, and start spending more quality time together as you all draw nearer to the Savior.
