Total Recall--a Scientifically proven method of word retention for SAT students

More than a million students take the SAT every year, pinning their hopes for the future on a high score. Building a strong vocabulary is one of the categories of study that is essential for success, but word lists and flash cards have proven to be ineffective study techniques.

Instant Recall SAT Vocabulary provides an easier, more successful way to build vocabulary, by using a scientifically proven system to help students build their word lexicons and thus achieve higher test scores. Using an audio program in conjunction with written text, this package encourages the student to imagine verbal images connecting the sound of the key word with its meaning. Studies have proven this method to be three times more effective than traditional means in advancing ones vocabulary. The package includes:

- Two 75-minute CDs
- A complete list of words
- Written exercises and more
