Renée (Lucille) Ludovic Deburme

French graphic novelist Ludovic Deburme returns with a devastating sequel to his prize-winning graphic novel Lucille. While Lucille moves back in with her overbearing mother and Arthur serves time in prison for murder, new character Renée becomes obsessed with a married jazz musician twice her age. Deburme's haunting border-less panels follow these three lovers between dreams and reality, twining their stories together into a poignant and universal search for love.
