While driving across a bridge in a driving rainstorm, Joe sees a car in the water quickly sinking into the lake. Hearing cries for help, he jumps in the water to save a mother and her two children. During the heroic rescue Joe gets disoriented in the murky lake and is transported to another world, a novel place where he is exposed to planets he's never heard of and encounters experiences that shatter his understanding of all things spiritual. In this new world, Joe encounters a guide who helps him to understand life's greatest mysteries, including the question that has always haunted Joe the most; what causes extreme evil on earth? Joe learns the incredible story of angels who were granted free will and came to earth, impregnated human woman and whose offspring changed the very course of history. These amazing creatures were called The Nephilim; beings referred to in ancient texts as "the heroes of old, the men of renown". People throughout the world know the story of creation in the book of Genesis yet have overlooked the strange verse just a few chapters later. "The Nephilim were on the earth in those days--and also afterward--when the sons of God went to the daughters of humans and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown." Who were these creatures and how could they still impact our world today? The shocking conclusion of The Nephilim Factor provides a chilling explanation of how evil might be living right next door!
