Assets (Balance Sheet) (Volume 1) Shannon Dermott

Bailey Glicks, an accountant, is all too aware of her asset value. She's pretty but not beautiful, smart but not a genius, and certainly she thinks she is more than enough for her fiancé. All that changes when she catches his cheating ass in a lie. Needing to get away and start anew, she heads to New York to stay with her best friend and former college roommate, Lizzy who has more than enough space to accommodate her. What she didn't bank on are two things. First, Kalen Brinner, a man whose implied wealth and attractiveness on paper, shouldn't be interested in her. But their combined sexual attraction sparks off like fireworks. Will it be enough to sustain a relationship, especially when circumstance makes one of them appear less than trustworthy? Can they survive the heat or will they combust in the flame of their own passion? Second, when the assets in audit she's working feel like they've been tainted with fraud; her supervisor isn't buying her theory. And if she's wrong about either, both could make her lose big. One her heart. The other her job.
