Under God's Plan: The Battle of Free Will Edward N. Kelley

Life decisions-how are they made? What influences result in good or bad decisions? And are we, as human beings, the sole intelligence behind decision making? Are we really alone in our day-to-day lives? Under God's Plan addresses these questions and more. This eloquent book follows one man's journey as he struggles to find salvation, chronicling the decisions, incidents, and influences-accepted or rejected-that ultimately changed his life's path. Like many of us, his life was driven by pride, greed, and other sins, but God's persistence created a spark that ultimately lit the fire of redemption and helped him find true peace. After a lifetime of searching, his answer was finally revealed. Read, reflect, and decide for yourself: Are we in full control of our salvation, or are we Under God's Plan?
